

Harbinger Group's Insurance Subsidiary FGL Executes $295 Million Reserve Credit Facility Replacement Three Years Early

October 11, 2012

NEW YORK - October 10, 2012 -Harbinger Group Inc. ("HGI"; NYSE: HRG) today announced the closing of a $295 million reserve credit facility between Nomura Bank International ("Nomura") and HGI's primary insurance company, Fidelity & Guaranty Life ("FGL"). The facility replaces a seller-provided facility put in place under the stock purchase agreement entered into between a subsidiary of HGI and Old Mutual plc for the acquisition of FGL.

"This marks an important milestone for FGL, as the company has eliminated the last remaining credit support by its former owner, more than three years ahead of our obligation and at a lower financing cost," said Phil Gass, Vice President of Investments at HGI. "Under Lee Launer's leadership, we have been able to improve FGL's balance sheet and grow its business, returning the insurance company to a leading provider of fixed index annuities. These accomplishments are significant as we continue to make strides in building value for HGI shareholders."

Under the terms of the reserve credit facility agreement, Nomura will provide Raven Re, a wholly-owned subsidiary of FGL, with a five-year facility at a lower financing cost to recapture business that was previously ceded to Old Mutual Reassurance (Ireland) Limited. Under the terms of the stock purchase agreement between HGI and Old Mutual, HGI was required to recapture this ceded business by December 31, 2015.

"Fidelity & Guaranty Life continues to meet and exceed expectations as we build a platform for future growth. I'm pleased we met this outstanding obligation quickly and well ahead of schedule," said Lee Launer, Chief Executive Officer of Fidelity & Guaranty Life.
